We appreciate the heads up and have alerted our management to the call (which seems not have happened yet, based on the responses I've received).

Good morning! I have received several calls from Jeff Grubbs asking for the memo or at least the modeling comments. I've told him that the next step is up to Region 2 – I'm waiting for your OK to sign the document.

Steve Ells alerted my management to the length of time between the review and the release of the memo. Doug Ammon was supposed to give a call to your management to confirm the time frame and get an explanation of why. I don't know if he did.
